

Anglican Consultative Council meeting, Auckland, October 2012

Resolution 15.30: Translation of key documents

The Anglican Consultative Council:

1. commends the work of the Réseau francophone de la Communion Anglicane (Francophone Network) in the face of serious cultural and political difficulties in several Provinces
2. requests the Anglican Communion Office to gather translated key documents on the Anglican Communion website in order to facilitate the sharing of non-anglophone materials among Provinces and dioceses, particularly documents in Spanish, French, Portuguese, Swahili, Arabic and other languages as appropriate
3. welcomes and encourages the work of Provinces in translating documents into local languages and requests that translated documents be forwarded to the Anglican Communion Office
4. requests the Secretary General to report to ACC-16 on progress in making translated documents available and accessible.
